

| Jan-21 | | | |
|-----------------------|----------------------|---------------------|---|
| Your Name | Student's First Name | Student's Last Name | Why are you selecting this student? |
| Mr. Lyon | Zach | Shaver | Zach always shows respect for his teachers, his peers, and shows respect for himself by completing his assignments/activities, working well with others, and asking for help vocally or digitally when needed. I've never had any issues with Zach! |
| Rebecca Gant | Yevdokiya (Evie) | Ovchinnikova | Evie has been super respectful all year of our time in class. She is always polite to both me and her peers in class. appreciate the respect Evie also shows whenever she emails to ask questions and make sure she fully understand her assignments. |
| Courtney Gradert | Aiden | Murray | I am so lucky to have Aiden in class this year. He works so hard in school and advocates for himself. Aiden shows respect to everyone he meets. He listens to others and is so thoughtful. I am so proud of him this year and I know other teachers appreciate how respectful he is. Thank you Aiden |
| Jeff Buckmaster | Owen | Zoss | Owen is a mature and respectful young man who is conscious of the environment he is in and is respectful of the people around him, whether they are his peers or adults |
| Mr. Daniels | John | Mangold | John has always been very respectful in class to me as a teacher and his fellow students. He offers help to other students and participates fully in class!! |
| Kyle Owens | Ellen | Nguyen | Ellen has been one of my best engineering students this year. Her attention to detail and passion for learning is outstanding. She is extremely attentive in class and respects both the engineering topic and her classmates. When Owens has an issue with canvas, Ellen promptly provides input to enhance the classroom experience. |
| Beth Strodel | Caden | York | Caden is respectful with his fellow classmates and with adults. He is also respected for his comments and behavior during class. |
| Michelle Carter | Hannah | Terry | Hannah is a kind-hearted student who is always polite. She always says please and thank you to me and her classmates, and she makes sure to thank me after each lesson. She shows appreciation for anything she receives, and she is respectful of her peers. I especially appreciate how she is considerate of others even when she does not agree with their opinions. Hannah is tactful and gracious when explaining her viewpoint. Her patience and courtesy have made her well-liked by her peers |
| Karen Fruits | Jackson | Hutjens | I have been very impressed with Jackson this year in my Geometry class. He is very attentive in class and always willing to answer questions. I find that he is very respectful when sharing his answers and is always very kind when working with his classmates. |
| Brent Schulz | Cameron | Perry | Cameron is very respectful in class towards both myself and other students. He converses well with other and is ve polite. It is great to have Cameron in class and appreciate him taking the course |
| Troy Dice | Seth | Baker | Seth consistently displays responsibility in Calculus. He does this by showing up prepared for class. He has a great attitude and is a vital asset in classroom discussion of Calculus material. I appreciate his maturity in a tough class. |
| Jennifer Casselman | Alyse | Edgar | Alyse has been an amazing peer tutor this semester but it's more than just helping students in class and completing coursework on Canvas. What I really appreciate is the way she treats the students in class. She seeks out ways to their friend, not as someone who's better than them, but as an equal, as a fellow high school student. She celebrates their successes with them and encourages them when they're struggling. Alyse is also great about asking questions: help even the most struggling student. It's easy to see she truly cares for the students and has nothing but respect for them. I couldn't ask for anything more in a peer tutor! |
| Andrea Teevan | Elizabeth | Hayden | Elizabeth is such a Kind soul. She is also very attentive during class and has always shown a great deal of respect both her teachers and her classmates. |
| Susanne Grier | Carolynne | Schott | Carolynne is so respectful to me and others. She is always ready to take on a challenge and treats all students with kindness and respect. Carolynne is such a pleasure to have in class |
| Summer Ehresman | Jackson | Gray | Jackson is always very respectful to both his teachers and his peers. He is very hard working, always stays on top of his work, and appreciates the time teachers put in. Having moved around a lot, he could approach new schools with negative attitude but he does not, each day I know when I talk to Jackson, he will respond with politeness and respect |
| Barbara Gnagy | Kalai | Revilla | Kalai is an exceedingly pleasant and respectful. He speaks in a respectful manner, he remains engaged in class, he acknowledges questions and instructions in class, and always responds appropriately. I appreciate Kalai's personal sense of humor, and the respect he shows to himself and others |
| S  verine McClellan | Lillian | Grove | Lillian is always very respectful and polite in her interactions with me and her classmates. |
| Michele DeLuna | Hannah | Terry | Hannah is always prepared for class and participates. She will also say "Thank you" every time she leaves the classroom. |
| Mr. Riley | Laiken | Knafel | Laiken is always courteous and respectful to other students in the class and to me as well. It is always appreciated. |
| Cindy Price | Josh | McRoberts | Josh always exhibits the utmost respect at all times, to every staff member and student he interacts with. I notice regularly that Josh is the one student I do not have to reinforce proper social etiquette or worry how he will handle himself, even in a possibly tense social situation with other students during school. Josh is my best example of a successful student because of the right attitude ,putting respect for others and himself before he speaks, acts or reacts. |
| Erin Barker | Hailey | Rivas | Hailey has come a long way in her attitude and effort in class. She has shown so much more respect as the year has gone on, and her attitude has become more focused. I know that respect is something she is working on showing teachers, so I want to acknowledge her growth so far this year |
| Raquel Johnson | Alexis | Brock | "Alejandra" is truly an awesome person and role model. |
| Michael Fellow | Aiden | Houck | Aiden is respectful in many aspects. He is polite and courteous. He is respectful to me as a teacher, as well as his classmates. He does not deride any of his fellow classmates. He is always ready to help anyone. He is also very good at respecting himself, by seeking help and being patient in the face of adversity |
| Srta. Fleck (Kristi) | Mackenzie | Souchon | Mackenzie always treats me and those around her with respect. She greets me when she walks in, thanks me when she leaves, is friendly with her classmates, and is always willing to participate. I really enjoy having Mackenzie in class and I appreciate her positive attitude and consistent desire to improve and meet class expectations. |
| Shawn Michael Sanders | Kaitlyn | Blackledge | Kaitlyn (Katie) has done a great job in class. She is actively engaged in class, works hard on her assignments, is good working with others, and is enjoyable to have in class. I am proud of Katie for her accomplishments |
| Mary Currier | Christina | Cvelbar | I have had the pleasure of getting to know Christina this school year. She is a very smart young woman who has always been respectful to me and her peers while in my classroom. I enjoy her participation in class and her willingness to always improve and do her best. When Christina asks questions via email or in class she is always respectful in her tone and very appreciative of the help. She holds herself to a high standard and I respect her for that!! I am glad I have been able to be Christina's teacher this year! |
| Lindy Scott | Mallory | Moore | Mallory has been in my classroom for several classes now. Over time she has become a lot more focused. She is very respectful. She recently found a pair of AirPods in class and was quick to turn them in. She could have easily left them there for someone else that may be dishonest to find, but she quickly respected others property and turned them in. She is very polite. I think Mallory exhibits a great deal of respect for others and I love that about her! |

| | | | |
|-----------------------|----------------|-----------------|--|
| Cynthia Coakley-Vidal | Kaydence | Doane | Kaydence has been really sweet when communicating with me to let me know when I have not entered something correctly in Canvas (this has happened several times!) She is always so very respectful and kind in the way she writes her notes it makes my mistake feel not so bad! Thank you Kaydence for keeping me on my toes even when it's technology!!! |
| Jacob Burskey | Jacob | Ella Meek | Ella displays respect each and every day. She is kind and jovial with her peers and teachers. She is a dedicated and inquisitive student. She is thankful and truly enjoys learning |
| Mr. Howe | Akimi | Kerr | Akimi is very respectful to our CG Staff and her CG classmates. She embodies the "speak softly, but be heard" mindset. In doing so, she not only shows respect, but also earns respect |
| Ms. Dana McNulty | Homero | Matzenbacher | Homero demonstrates respect on a daily basis in my classroom. Whether it is working with his peers or interacting with me, I can always rely on him being kind and polite. He critically analyzes texts in our classroom and listens to others' perspectives during class discussions. Homero is one of the only students who consistently wishes me a go day at the end of class -- I appreciate that consideration. Thank you for demonstrating all of these good qualities, Homero! |
| Ryan Hendryx | Aubrey | Hackett | Aubrey does an outstanding job in my class. She is always prepared for class and always willing to ask questions. She is an excellent role model for her peers and is willing to help whenever possible |
| Angela Chaplin | Harrison | Hite | I met with Harrison a couple of times this year while scheduling and he has always been respectful in his words and mannerisms. |
| Jennifer Pickell | Taylor | Scholl | Taylor demonstrates respect on a daily basis. In addition to raising her hand and using thoughtful words to her peer when I pass out papers she always says thank you. While this may seem like a small gesture, it is rare and greatly appreciated! |
| Josh Torres | Emmy | Gonzalez | Emmy Gonzalez constantly demonstrates respect in our percussion program. Her interactions with staff members are always positive and respectful. She has an excellent rapport with her fellow students because she treats them with kindness. I am very appreciative of Emmy's leadership and dedication to our Indoor Percussion program. Keep up the great work Emmy! |
| Hannah Dodson | Samantha (Sam) | Hawkins | Sam embodies this month's trait-respect. Whether it is using her time wisely in class, helping out others, asking questions during class, or communicating via email, Sam is always respectful of others. Sam respects our time in class by being present; she is never off-task or disengaged. She listens and contributes to whatever we are doing. Sam is a mature young woman who demonstrates respect to everyone she meets. She is a valuable member of our class and I am so happy I know her! |
| Wes Dodson | Ella | Dewitt | Ella is so hard working. She comes in for extra help, attends all the in class zooms and if she can't she finds a way to figure all her work. |
| Kevin Schuessler | Jimmy | Hale | Jimmy moved here last year and quickly assimilated himself into the band culture and activities. Being he has been apart of another school system and have supportive parents, it is great to see him be respectful of the opportunities and friendships that he has made |
| Alan Hagedorn | Elijah | Chandler | Elijah is always respectful, cheerful and engaged. He is well mannered and verbally thankful after each class. In a freshman class that is very respectful in person and in email, Elijah stands out for his consistent thankfulness. :) |
| Joe Siderewicz | David | Williamson | David always shows respect to me and my student teacher in class. David is enthusiastic about learning, participates in class discussions, and is always engaged in the lessons. I enjoy having David in class and I appreciate his effort. |
| Julie Coyne | Helena | Hashimoto | Helena is a joy to have in class! She is always polite and helpful. Helena works very hard in and outside of class. Keep being awesome!!! |
| Cale Hoover | Dane | Carr | I appreciate Dane's positive attitude and energy he brings to the class each day. He represents "RESPECT" each class by how he interacts with teachers and students |
| Jessica Keeton | Paige | Downs | Paige is always respectful and attentive in class. I notice that she turns to give eye contact when I am walking around the room sharing instructions or talking about our class work. She participates, listens to others in group work, and is kind. Thank you, Paige for being a quiet leader in our classroom community |
| Lisa Brinkman | David (Gunner) | Studer | I am selecting Gunner Studer as the student of the month for January, because I have seen a major change in his behavior and work habits. Gunner listens and talks with respect, accepts my help when offered, and asks for help when needed. Gunner wants to be successful and if he continues to show these new positive behaviors and works hard, he can achieve his goals. I enjoy working with Gunner and am proud of him! |
| Drew Garrison | Hannah | Terry | Hannah is always extremely respectful when asking/answering questions, and she always says "thank you, have a great day" whenever she leaves class. |
| Clare Rodgers | Mason | Golden | Mason works very hard at school, and he's always respectful and polite to the people around him. He is a pleasure to be around! |
| Jennifer Calhoun | Ely | Detty | Ely has shown great respect to his classmates and myself throughout this year. He is helpful to others, attentive to lessons, and polite. |
| Ms. Myers | Alexandra | Castro-Melendez | Alex is one of the most respectful students I have in class. She is courteous to everyone around her, classmates, teachers, and every staff member of the school. She is always so polite and well spoken, she is a joy to be around. |
| Lesley McDougal | Cole | Eckert | Cole is a student in my dual credit Intro to Literature class and is also in my 200-level Creative Writing course, which consists of all seniors. He is working hard and attends zoom sessions for both classes and is managing the writing assignments so well in both classes! Very impressive! |
| Jonathan Rogers | Noah | Clouser | Noah recently inquired about when a grade would be entered, and he did in a respectful manner. He sought further guidance on how he could present his request in as respectful a manner as he could, and this type of respectful communication will serve him well in his life if he continues to utilize it. |
| Becki Kerr | Zakyra | Huff | Zakyra moved to our school last year. I am impressed with her discipline and her work ethic. I am sure that the move has brought many challenges and many moments that are a delicate balance to embrace the new and cherish the old. I am sure she misses many things about her old life in her old school. I compliment her on the positive attitude she chooses to embrace the new with; she always greets me with a smile. I would like to recognize that, in addition to the traits I have just mentioned, Zakyra has a noticeable level of respect for her teachers. I have never had a conversation with Zakyra that she doesn't answer my questions with a "yes, ma'am or no, ma'am" |
| Jessica Thomas | Grace | Streib | Grace is one of my cadet teachers and has done such a fantastic job working with both myself and her cooperating teacher this year. One thing I notice consistently is her respectful and professional attitude every day inside and outside the classroom. She takes being a cadet teacher to the next level! She even dresses professionally on her cadet teaching days because she truly respects the profession. She is a pleasure to have in class and I know she is going to do great things in her future. I'm lucky to have Grace as my student |
| Jennifer Dice | Kyle | Williams | Kyle exemplifies what it means to be respectful. Furthermore, he is not just respectful of the adults and coaches in his life, he is respectful to all people. He understands that people are valuable and deserve to be treated as you would hope to be treated yourself. I have never once seen Kyle be unkind to another student and in fact, he goes out of his way to include everyone. The CGHS Choral Program is grateful to have such an outstanding young man as a part of our ensembles. |
| Amy Wingler | Simone | Cole | Simone has always worked hard for me in math and is very respectful. Math is not a subject she loves, but she knows she needs it to meet her goal of graduation. I am proud of Simone's efforts |

