

One, Two, Three Columns

- Read the chosen or assigned text; selection, book, passage, or article.
- Put it aside.
- In column 1, write one thing you learned from the text.
- Reread the text.
- Put it aside.
- In column 2, write the additional thing(s) you learned from the article or text.
- Reread the text or article a third time.
- In column 3, write the additional new things you learned from the article or text.
- Share with a partner or your group the differences between what they've learned the first, second, and third readings.

One

Write one thing you learned during the first reading

Two

Write the additional thing you learned during the second reading

Three

Add the additional new thing you learned during the third reading

--	--	--

--	--	--

--	--	--