CENTER GROVE, IN (August 16, 2013)—The Center Grove Board of School Trustees approved the appointment of Stacy Conrad as the district's communications specialist at its Thursday, August 15 meeting.

Conrad is an Emmy Award-winning journalist with more than 20 years in the communications industry. Her experience includes work as news director for WIBC-FM/Network Indiana, Indianapolis, as assistant news director for WISH-TV, Indianapolis, and as a senior account manager for Hirons and Company Communications, Indianapolis. She received her Bachelor of Arts degree in Political Science, Electronic Media from the University of Indianapolis.

"This is such an exciting time for Center Grove! Stacy's experience as a communications professional is beyond compare. Her understanding of how to ensure that Center Grove's core messages are extended to all stakeholders will continue to build upon our success and progress," said Rich Arkanoff, superintendent of the Center Grove Community School Corporation. "We are confident Stacy will elevate the corporation's reputation and advance its efforts to excel."

"As a Center Grove parent, I see the dedication and commitment teachers and staff have to their students," said Conrad who lives in Center Grove with her husband and three sons. "I am eager to help the district build on its tradition of excellence and bring recognition to the staff and students for the great work they are doing every day." Conrad will begin her new role on August 16.
