

January Students of the Month

Student		Staff Member	Why are you selecting this student?
Raya	Al Jaibachi	Erin McNeill	Raya is very cognizant of how her actions affect others. She pays close attention to how those around her feel, and is very respectful to all teachers and peers.
Kyle	Bachman	Debbie Nolan	Kyle is an outstanding student with great moral character and a strong work ethic. He has always been polite and respectful to me and to his peers. He prepares before class, takes notes during discussions, participates and leads during group projects, and follows the classroom rules. He is a great role model to show others how to be respectful to teachers
William	Bauer	Shahn Riley	Will demonstrates this month's character trait as well as or better than any student that I can think of. His mature, respectful attitude is always appreciated by his peers and teachers.
Kait	Berg	Trina Veerkamp	Kait makes me smile. She is very respectful of me and my class. She seems to do her best and is always trying to learn new material. However, she can tease and laugh and still get right back to work. She is such an enjoyable person to have in class. Also, I feel she respects the subject and my teaching of it.
Rebecca	Bernard	Rick Jones	Rebecca is a very talented art student and she faithfully attends my Open Studio that I offer on Wednesdays where students can stay late and work on their art. Rebecca also is conscientious and without being asked, she takes the initiative and places all the chairs on the art desks before leaving so that our custodian can easily clean.
Jenna	Boha	Marcene Hensley	Jenna sent me an email one day asking to come in to talk about her grade. When she came in, she was very mature and respectful in her voice and questions on what she needed to do in order to improve her grade.
Kourtland (KJ)	Brady	Troy Dice	Extremely respectful students who gives good effort in class everyday. Pleasure to have in class.
Corey	Briscoe	Angela Chaplin	Corey is very respectful towards teachers and administration in both his actions and words. He sets a great example to his peers and treats them with respect and kindness as well.
Jacob	Buckner	Meaghan Krukemeier	I am happy to nominate Jacob Buckner for "RESPECT" this month. Jacob always is so polite, and caring. I have not heard Jacob say one cross word to anyone, and he is always there to help if needed. He has great manners and is a pleasure to be around! It has been awesome to be his counselor the last four years!!!
Nick	Buettgen	Elisabeth Sturm	Nick has done such a wonderful job in January with asking questions, making sure his assignments are turned in, and getting extra help when he needs it. I hear almost every day from Mrs. Brinkman, who is in class with us, how respectful and responsible Nick has been these past few weeks. I know how hard Nick has been working, and I wanted to recognize and celebrate that!
Nick	Buettgen	Lisa Brinkman	Nick has been very polite and respectful in English class to his teachers and fellow classmates. He follows directions and stays on task. Nick asks for help when needed and is very appreciative for it. Great job Nick!!! Keep up the good work!!!
Dylan	Castle	Adam Gaff	Dylan has been increasingly respectful towards me in his high school career here at CGHS. I am proud of the growth that he has made!
Macy	Caudill	Cheyenne Gilbert	I am very lucky to have Macy in a few of my classes. She is always respectful to her teachers and peers. She is polite and values her relationships with the people around her. She brings a light in the room when she walks into the class.
Trey	Clark	Hannah Dodson	Trey is always polite, kind, and helpful to everyone and everything around him; his maturity is admirable. Overall, he is the student that any teacher would be happy to have on their roster. He's a good team mate to have around!

January Students of the Month

Student		Staff Member	Why are you selecting this student?
Mason	Cook	Connie Poston	As a North Grove mentor this year and last Mason has demonstrated that he is a role model we want our younger students to look up to. In observing Mason a mentor it is obvious he takes this responsibility seriously and respects the status of this privilege. He is eager to work with his student and is teaching respect to this younger student.
Nolan	Coy	Karen Fruits	Nolan is always kind and respectful when working with his classmates or asking a question.
Bobby	Dean	Jennifer Dice	Bobby is one of the most respectful young men I have had the privilege to teach. What is most impressive about this is that he is only a Freshmen. He is incredibly polite, committed to excellence, and a model student to others. I am very excited to be able to work with him over the course of the next 3 and a half years!
Richard	DeChant	Bettie Bedan	Richard is by far one of the most respectful students I have ever had in class! He is truly sincere when answering respectfully. What a joy Richard was to have in class last year!
Carter	Dills	Kara Klippel	Carter is so quiet and respectful every time I see him or whenever he comes in the Attendance Office. He never interrupts and always waits his turn.
Danny	Dwyer	Cindy Heckel	Quite simply one of the nicest most respectful young men I have had the privilege to know!
Grace	Dyer	Malisa Dills	Grace exemplifies the quality RESPECT as she is always courteous and respectful in her manner. Her kind and positive attitude is also greatly appreciated and always makes the mornings a little brighter.
Cole	Eckert	Lauren Widbin	Cole is polite and respectful to students and teachers alike. He is responsible and honorable, and I really appreciate his willingness to communicate (in person and via email). He demonstrates respect of himself and to others daily, and his kindness and thoughtfulness is honorable!
Hannah	Ferguson	Dawna Montgomery	I have had Hannah in class for two semesters now. I have found her to be so polite and courteous to both her classmates and the teacher. She is helpful, thoughtful, patient, tolerant and very RESPECTFUL. She is a student who demonstrates this quality well.
Brandon "Carter"	Foreman	Lesley Stevens	I had Carter in Nutrition and Wellness. He was SO respectful, friendly and kind!! What a kid!! He would always ask about my day and seemed to have a smile on his face. He was so respectful in the lab and in the classroom. He helped other students and always spoke to people with a kind, respectful tone. I'm so glad I had the pleasure of teaching Carter in Nutrition and Wellness!!! I definitely enjoyed him this semester!
Carter (Brandon)	Foreman	Cale Hoover	Carter displayed a great attitude in both government and economics classes first semester. He was respectful of everyone in the room and had an infectious positive attitude. This was proven when the class elected him as president during our mock election.
Margo	Gardner	Lisa Lage	This month's character trait is respect. I have gotten to know Margo as I work in Margo's Algebra 1 class. Though I do not typically work directly with Margo, she always says 'Hi' to me, asks me how I am doing, has a smile on her face and always is so respectful to me, Mr. Dodson, and all of her peers. I know that I could ask her for help and she would politely and willingly be right there! I appreciate Margo and her kind spirit. Her character, as a whole, is really wonderful. She is such a pleasure to

Student		Staff Member	Why are you selecting this student?
Ella	Gilpatrick	Melissa Warner	Ella is always respectful, even when I can tell she's frustrated. There were times last semester when her table group seemed to frustrate her, but she was always nice and respectful, even when frustrated. Many students would have shut down or been rude to students who weren't working as hard as she wanted them to; however, Ella never did that. When she has concerns about class, she knows the right moments to come up and and ask about their concerns. Really, Ella is just a pleasure to have in class, and I have never seen her be anything but sweet and respectful to everyone -- both teachers and students.
Madison	Gloyeske	Shawn Sanders	Madison is the hardest working student I have. I have 125 students and NO ONE cares more, works harder, puts in the amount of time that Madison does. I am so proud of the character she shows every day whether it's hard or easy. She never backs away from a challenge and shows great determination!
Gage	Gosnell	Eric Moore	Gage does extra workouts each day. He always has the best attitude and wants to help his classmates be the best by being a leader by example everyday!!
Drew	Green	Jeff Buckmaster	Drew through his four years in school has always taken a work like effort to whatever task he has come about, whether it be school or athletics. He does things that would not be his first choice, but are the choices of his friends/classmates. He is always there for a friend/classmate when they need help or encouragement.
Clara	Guilkey	Joe Siderewicz	Clara is an outstanding student in my class! She always shows great respect for the teacher and her classmates. Clara takes every assignment very serious and always strives to do her best. She shows enthusiasm for learning by the effort she gives each day. Clara is truly a great student to have in class!
George	Hambleton	Chris Frampton	George sets such a great example for the other students in my class. He shows respect to other students as well as to adults. He is always friendly, helpful, responsible, and respectful. CG will miss him next year!
Nick	Hardy	Kevin Schuessler	Nick is a TA in the music area, top performer in both the winter guard and wind ensemble. His respect of his peers is displayed with regularity for all that enter the office or those that interact with his ensembles. He is looked up to as a leader due to his respect of peers and those leading him.
Andrew	Harrell	Danielle Myers	I have had Andrew in class for biology and forensics and throughout his academic career he has always had the utmost respect for his teachers.
Christian	Heatherly	Stuckmeyer	Christian is an extremely polite and respectful person. He shows an unwavering conscientious attitude towards peers, teachers, and everyone around him. He does an outstanding job in class and works really hard to achieve at a high level.
Jordan	Herman	Anthony Mann	In the first couple weeks of the 2nd Semester, Jordan has shown a great improvement in people respectful to his teachers and peers. When he asks questions, he is very polite and shows gratitude to me and my assistant. Jordan's 2nd Semester has started off very nicely.
Easton	Hewitt	Jane McMurrer	Easton shows incredible self respect by the respect he shows towards others - classmates and teachers.
Cade	Hine	Ryan Hendryx	Cade does an excellent job in my classroom. He is a very high character individual and is very respectful towards myself, as well as other students. During class, Cade is always on task and working hard. I have enjoyed having Cade in class and look forward to teaching him the rest of the semester.
Peyton	Hoskins	Michele De Luna	Peyton moved here this year and was behind in Spanish. He has worked very hard to get caught up and get back to where we are. He respects everyone around him
Naomi	Ikeda	Stephanie Lyn Paul	Naomi is one of the most respectful students I have ever had the pleasure to work with. When she has requested anything of me, she is beyond grateful and thankful every single time. I want her to know how proud I am of her and what a remarkable impression she had made on me. She is truly one amazing young lady.

January Students of the Month

Student		Staff Member	Why are you selecting this student?
Kylie	Jenkins	Mike Bishop	She has been awesome in class and shown a good amount of respect to me, fellow students, and the nerdy sheep hearts we've been dissecting regardless of the smell.
Brenten	Kearney	Julie Coyne	Brenten is a great person. He is respectful to all in his words and actions. Thanks Brenten!!!
Jack	Kempe	Drew Garrison	Jack is always very respectful in class and is a great participator.
Alex	Komanowsk	Katie DeArmitt	Alex is always respectful of her classmates and their opinions, even if she does not agree with them. Additionally, she's aware of creating a safe and welcoming environment in each of her classes. When she hears of something that she fears will make others uncomfortable, she takes the necessary steps to ensure it doesn't happen. I am truly thankful to have Alex in class.
Emma	Matlock	Amy Wingler	Emma always is pleasant in class and to her classmates. She comes into class saying hello to me and is one of the first to do what is asked of her in class.
Sidney	May	Jennifer Casselman	Sidney has gone above and beyond the call of duty as a Best Buddies officer. But what I admire most about her involvement with the Special Education Program, is the level of respect that she holds for these students. She doesn't treat them differently because of their disability. She has a keen sense of what these students need to be successful; wise beyond her sophomore status. She respects their individual needs, respects them as equal peers at the high school, and respects the importance of confidentiality. She is a great friend to several students in the program and a great role model for high school students.
Emma	McCarty	Ashlee Vitz	Emma is the epitome of respect. She always has a stellar attitude and does everything she is asked with smile on her face. Her positive behavior is contagious to her peers. I am so fortunate to have her as a student and shining example in my fourth period class.
Brennan	McDougal	Duncan Baumgart	Brennan has been extremely respectful and hard working at all times this past semester. I am proud to have him in my class and thankful he is the type of student he is in my class.
Lailie	McKenzie	Nathan Fry	Is always super respectful in class in the way she interacts with peers and teachers.
Caroline	McNamee	Tracy Buck	Caroline always respects me when I am going over instructions in class. She gives me her attention and seems genuinely interested in the material. She is also kind and respectful to her classmates.
Kurt	Miller	Greg Valenta	As one of my first items to discuss at the beginning of the year is to stress the 3R's to be a focus in the classroom. The 3R's consist of respect for yourself, others, and our school. Having observed Kurt all fall semester and again this spring, he consistently sets a good example for all students to follow. He is focused during presentations, helps others through effective collaboration and never abuses our facilities.
James	Misener	Brent Schulz	James has been very respectful to both myself and other students in the class. He has taken it upon himself to help others when he sees a need. He is also respectful to the items around the classroom and lab. He has gone the extra mile when completing his work, doing enrichment activities, and the simple upkeep of the area. I am glad James is in my class and I look forward to him taking other courses of mine.
Carson	Mitchell	Jessica Goodman	Carson is always respectful in my classroom. He is kind and considerate towards his classmates and listens attentively when I am teaching. He is an excellent model of respect for his peers.
Carson	Mitchell	Adam Clark	From day one, Carson has always been one of the most polite, respectful students that I have had. Even if he is having a rough day, is sick or tired, or unmotivated, he always treats his fellow classmates or myself with the utmost respect.
Christina	Monev	John Moore	Christine is always focused and engaged in class. She does a good job answering questions. Her attention in class shows respect.

January Students of the Month

Student		Staff Member	Why are you selecting this student?
Andreas	Mullendore	Joseph Lapka	Andreas is an extremely mature student who treats everyone around him with respect and dignity. He is a pleasure to have in class and sets such a great example for his peers.
Gary	Murphy	Tammy Walker	I have been working with Gary on the Work Ethic Certificate Program requirements and he is always so kind and respectful. I really appreciate his attitude and his willingness to do whatever is asked of him. Gary is a pleasure to work with and a great example of RESPECT!
Bryce	Murphy	Anne Elsner	Bryce always demonstrates respect not only towards teachers and other adults, but to his peers as well. I've seen him have others go in front of him leaving the classroom, but more importantly will give someone their undivided attention when they are speaking.
Matt	Pence	Chad Daniels	Great leader and communicator on the field and in the classroom.
Megan	Perry	Kelly McCarry	Megan is the perfect example of our January Character Trait, Respect. I am so proud of the young woman Megan is becoming and how she approaches everyone with such kindness and graciousness. Megan goes out of her way to help others as a Peer Mentor and shows each of those students they are respected with her kindness. She was also a leader to the underclassmen on her Soccer team and went out of her way to assist them when needed! I will miss Megan next year but know that she will do amazing things as she continues her journey to college in the fall!
Kayla	Poe	Andrea Teevan	I just love Kayla's demeanor and I can only hope my daughter will grow into such a strong, confident, and respectful young lady.
Liam	Price	Josh Torres	Liam greets me each days with a very respectful greeting. He is always very thoughtful about his interactions with me and thanks me for my time and for teaching him. I very much appreciate Liam's demeanor and efforts in my class!
Kaya	Revilla	Barbara Gnagy	I am fortunate in that I can describe the majority of my students as respectful most of the time, but I can honestly say that in 3 1/2 years in my classroom, Kaya has been respectful every single day in every interaction I have witnessed both with me and with her peers. She has earned my respect!
Chandler	Ritch	Courtney Gradert	Chandler is an incredible young man! I feel truly blessed to have had him in class. He works hard in his classes and truly sees the best in everyone. His positive outlook on life is a characteristic not many have. I am so proud of his transition to Center Grove and how he has handled everything. You have a super bright future Chandler!
Elena	Rodriguez	Rebecca Gant	Elena has always been super polite and respectful both to me and her peers in class. She always comes to class with a great attitude, and I appreciate her hard work and willingness to try speaking new things in Spanish!
Max	Schmelzle	Andy Kominowski	Over 4 years in my STaR, Max has shown respect for not only me, but also the teachers that I have seen him interact with.
Cameron	Scott	James McAdams	Chris is extremely courteous and respectful. I enjoy having him in class.
Corbin	Seale	Mr. Fellow	Corbin is excited about learning, he comes prepared for class. He is polite and inquisitive. He respects everyone in the classroom including the teacher. He is eager to learn!
Katelyn	Seip	Lesley McDougal	Katelyn is a ROCK STAR. She works harder than most students in this building at school and most importantly, life in general. And in true Katelyn form, she does it with grace and strength. I am so proud of her! She's an inspiration!
Lara	Severyn	Sommer Meyer	Lara is very respectful of herself, her peers, and the adults in the classroom. She works hard and will ask questions when needed. She can work well with everyone in the lab. I appreciate that she is respectful and kind to everyone.
Tesfaladet	Seyoum	Brad Timmons	Respectful towards peers and teachers alike.
Andrew	Shaub	Casey Tedrow	Andrew is in my STaR. He has matured so much this last year and is super respectful of me in class. This week, a student was completely breaking down crying in class. Andrew made a point to come to me and let me know so that I could intervene. He was respectful of both the student's privacy but also showed concern and compassion.

January Students of the Month

Student		Staff Member	Why are you selecting this student?
Josh	Sims	Cindy Coakley-Vidal	I have had Josh in class now for 2 years, he has always been respectful in his actions with me as well as other students. He sets high standards for himself, shows initiative if he needs help, and is a great example for his peers. (He's also just a great kid!)
Josh	Sims	Jenna Carroll	Josh overall has demonstrated respect throughout the course of the year to both myself and his peers in his American Studies course. In terms of reaching out in regards to questions or future absences, Josh has always been courteous and respectful in terms of communication. He has also served as an asset to students that he works with in class and has demonstrated qualities of respect in how he interacts with others and what he contributes to help promote a better learning experience for all. Look in your classroom of this recognition!
Bryant	Simulia	Mr. Surface	Bryant demonstrates respect not only to his fellow students and teachers, but to other ideas and values. His character and work ethic are second to none. It is an honor to work with him over the course of his senior year.
Isabelle	Snyder	Mrs. Scott	Isabelle always goes above and beyond to help in anyway she can. She tries hard in my classes to not only do her work well but looks out for students with Special Needs as well. She sets a great example for others.
Brianna	Sparrow	Holly White	Brianna is always polite, considerate, and tolerant of others. For these reasons I have enjoyed having her in my class.
Brianna	Stewart-Allen	Jackie Fowler	Brianna is kind, helpful, aware of her peers and their needs. She is respectful to all.
Shelby	Stickels	Nick Lyon	Shelby always shows respect to her teachers and peers.
Liam	Strong	Tasha Vessely	Great tech TA!
Hunter	Stroup	Beth Duley	Hunter regularly participates in class discussions, with insight, maturity, and respect.
Ellie	Strube	Lindsay Miller	At the start of the semester, many students requested schedule changes after their schedules were changed due to balancing of classes. Ellie was one of those students. Her request was much different than most. She asked but ended with letting me know that she understood if I was unable to make the changes she requested. After I had to tell her I could not adjust her schedule back to how it originally was, she sent a very kind email saying it was not a problem. I appreciated her advocating for herself and still being respectful. She is such a wonderful young lady!
Collin	Taylor	Karen Cornett	Was having issues with his transcript and it was taking technology longer than we thought to fix the problem but every time he came in to inquire about it he was very respectful and courteous to me.
Grace	Tiffany	Clare Rodgers	I have had Grace in class for four years, and in that time, I don't think she has ever uttered an unkind word about anyone. She is always polite and respectful to teachers and peers. She is a kind and decent person who is a pleasure to be around.
Mickey	Turpin	Wes Dodson	Every day that I have Mickey I am impressed with his professionalism and how he treats me and his peers.
Sir Kyle	Watts	Eric Howe	I have had Kyle in class for going on four semesters. He is attentive during class and is active during conversations, even when he disagrees with others he has a knack for communicating his stance in a respectful manner.
Grace	Wiley	Mrs. Shackelford	I really enjoy having Grace in my Fiber Arts class. She is kind and respectful to everyone around her. She engages in conversation, asks questions and is always attentive when I am teaching. She is a real joy to have in class.
Samuel	Wong	Summer Ehresman	Sam shows so much respect to his teachers - he is wonderful to have in class! He also listens to his peers and is respectful of their opinions.
Shirley	zheng	Karen Gerhart	Shirley is always ready for class and on-task. She tries very hard in English 9, and she usually has one of the highest grades among her peers on most assessments. She is always kind to others as well. I appreciate her setting a good example!
