CAREER & WORKFORCE INFORMATION

Vincennes University Next Level Jobs Program:

Seniors that are interested in attending Vincennes University should check out the Next Level Jobs Program to see if they could qualify for the Indiana Workforce Readiness Grant if they major in specific fields of study. Please read through the requirements for the program. See your counselor for more information.

Indiana Workforce Ready Grant:

Students that are interested in the Indiana Workforce Ready Grant please see your counselor for more information.

INFAME Program:

Indiana FAME connects area students with employer partners, obtaining sponsorship to pursue a two-year technology degree. Sponsoring companies provide the student with paid work experience and on-the-job mentorship. The student works part time while balancing a weekly work/study schedule. If you are interested please read the presentation and then see your counselor with further questions.

Paul Mitchell Academy Open House:

Students that are potentially interested in careers in cosmetology should attend the Paul Mitchell National Open House. See the flyer and scan the QR code to sign up and attend.

Indiana Careers in Construction

Students that are interested in careers in construction and all building trades should check out the Built to Succeed Program. This is an opportunity for students to apply for apprenticeships, learn about job opportunities, sign up to receive updates and newsletters and even attend Career Fairs.

Empowered Youth:

Empowered Youth is a coalition made up of high school students who attend school in Johnson County. They are focused on preventing underage alcohol, tobacco, vaping, and substance use. This will be their third year and they are excited to make an even bigger impact in the community. Please see the flyer and QR code if you are interested in joining.
